

Architecture Scavenger Hunt: Thomasville History Center

The 3-acre property at 725 N. Dawson Street that is now the Thomasville History Center features 8 historic buildings that range from the 1870s through the 1950s. Together, these buildings help to tell the story of life on a rural farm in the 1800s, town life in the 1890s, and the prosperity of the 1950s. All of the items on this scavenger hunt can be found on the outside of the History Center's historic buildings.

Can you find all of the details that make these historic structures unique? Remember to look up, down, and all around the buildings.
